

JOHNSON 'TRAPPED' BY BEAUTIFUL CHORINES

Al Johnson, man of the hour, Director of Revelries, and unwilling accomplice in the "inauguration" of the Art wing mistletoe, was finally cornered at the spot by four members of the chorus yesterday. "I was trapped," said Johnson. (Gadzooks, he gets four of the loveliest girls on campus under a tree-full of mistletoe, and he says, "I was trapped!") However, it helped to clear the air when he added: "I only had to stand out there for five or six hours, but they finally caught me." Entirely incidental, of course, was the fact that Photographer Johnny Umphries happened along at the right moment to get the picture, but he did, and the evidence is final and unequivocal. The four young ladies who executed the coup, Jay Ventre, Jessie Steinagle, Virginia Birmingham, and Merry Page, are fewer than half of

Co-eds Consult Date Directory

Co-eds in search of a date for Saturday night's girls-date "Stetson Stomp" may consult a "date directory" in the Spartan Shop, where fellows may sign their names and telephone numbers.

Benny Glassman's orchestra will furnish music for the dance, which will carry out a dude ranch theme. Jeans and gingham will be worn by those attending the affair.

Four candidates have been entered so far in the Outdoor Girl and Boy contest. Phil Richards, Sue Dee Smart, Carroll Cowles, and "Moe" Richardson are competing. Organizations are reminded to name candidates as soon as possible.

Bids are on sale at a booth in the Library arch for $1.25. The dance will take place in the Women's gym from 9 to 1 o'clock Saturday night.

Bids were made by a committee headed by Kay Goepfert and Connie Jones. They are made in the shape of little Stetson hats.

Tickets Now On Sale For 'Penthouse' Play

Tickets for the comedy, "Brief Music," to be presented in the lounge of the Student Union February 5 through 9 are on sale this week and next between the hours of 9 a. m. and 4 p. m. Student admission is 35 cents, general admission is 60 cents.

The play will start at 8:30 p. m. and be presented in what is known as "penthouse style." The style is a new one; the audience sits on all sides of the stage area.

X-ray Here Today

The X-ray unit of the Santa Clara County Tuberculosis association will be at the east door nearest the Health office today and tomorrow, January 30 and 31.

All entering students who did not have X-rays taken Saturday, January 5, are requested to report at the unit during a free period on one of these days.

SJS Hopes To Get Funds For Dorms

The problem of housing for veterans was brought before the State Senate Education Committee and the Assembly Ways and Means committee last Thursday by President T. W. MacQuarrie and San Jose State college veterans Henry Tonini and Virgil Young.

Dr. MacQuarrie and the students drove to Sacramento to speak in connection with Senator Salsman's bill to appropriate $5,830,000 for state college dormitories, $738,000 of which will go to San Jose State college. Tonini, Young, and Dr. MacQuarrie plan to go again to Sacramento later this week when the bill will be before the Senate Finance committee.

The bill has gone through the committees satisfactorily so far and has a very good chance of being passed by the Senate soon, Dr. MacQuarrie asserts. "Senator Salsman and Assemblymen Thompson and Miller are doing a bang up job on this bill. They are giving it a great deal of attention, and have been highly successful," he said.

BARGAINS AT LOST, FOUND SALE TODAY

Spartan Spears are conducting a sale of the unclaimed Lost and Found articles from last year in front of Morris Dailey Auditorium today. The sale began at 9 in the morning and will last until 4 in the afternoon.

Many valuable articles will go on sale at prices ranging from five cents and up. Among the many articles for sale are bandanas, jewelry, binders, sweaters, shoes, pens, umbrellas, a set of brand new zoology instruments and many others.

Co-chairmen for the sale are Beverly Sack and Barbara Jensen, who agree that there are many articles useful to the students at prices that will suit the students.

The money that the Spartan Spears receive from this sale will, as always, be used for the betterment of the college or the Health Cottage.

Red Cross Chairmen Deliver The Goods

Phil Johnson and Dot McCullough, student co-chairmen of Red Cross, took finished materials to the local Red Cross headquarters Friday and picked up more material for sewing for Philippine relief.

Work by San Jose State students which was turned in included six 48 square or small afghans, three 96 square or large afghans, three navy sweaters, six army V-necked sweaters, one navy scarf, two pairs of navy mittens, two pairs of army socks, and 12 wash cloths.

30 CLUB MEMBERS

Please come to Room 11 today at 4 o'clock for an important special meeting to elect officers. All members are requested to attend this afternoon's meeting.

The next regular meeting will be Tuesday, February 12.

Clothing Drive Is On!

Boxes Ready To Receive Garments For War Victims

Today is the day of the San Jose State clothing drive. Now is the time to turn in these old clothes and bedding that will bring new warmth and life to the many unfortunate peoples of Europe and Asia. Boxes have been placed near the Science building, the Art building, the Morris Dailey auditorium, and the Library arch to receive the bundles of clothes.

MEET "MORAL" QUOTA

The drive is sponsored by the Student Council with Jackie George as student chairman. Although no specific quota has been set, San Jose State has a "moral" quota to meet, so bring those old clothes!

Any articles of clothing will be accepted. Those most badly needed are: shoes, dresses, trousers, sweaters, underwear, shawls, bedding, and many others.

HELP THESE

Bring clothes and help relieve such situations as these: War victims in the Philippines are wearing garments made of pounded tree bark which cost about $2 each. This is a high price for an uncomfortable garment, considering that $20 is the average monthly wage there.

The Victory Clothing Collection is asking for remnants, draperies, pieces of discarded blackout material, which will make more practical and comfortable clothing for the Philippine people.

SPARTAN SPEARS CONTINUE CAMPUS MARCH OF DIMES

The Spartan Spears are on the march this week for the March of Dimes. The drive will be carried on through Friday by the Spears, who will collect donations from students. Tins for donations are also placed around the campus in such convenient spots as the Co-op and the booth in the Library arch.

The money collected each year through the March of Dimes drive goes for the support of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. This money is provided by the people of the United States for "polio" victims of this country. And it is the people themselves who carry on the work, since the foundation is staffed by volunteer workers who carry on the year-round fight against infantile paralysis in their area.

The activities of the foundation are many. It plans, inaugurates, and finances—through grants to laboratories, universities and other organizations—a nationwide program of research into the cause, prevention and cure of poliomyelitis.

The foundation is ever alert and ready to combat epidemics whenever and wherever they occur.

USO GIRLS' MEETING SCHEDULED SUNDAY

A conference for USO girls will be held in the YWCA from 2 to 7 o'clock Sunday, February 3.

Speakers for the occasion will include representatives from the Navy and the Red Cross. There will be awarding of pins to junior hostesses, and refreshments will be served at 5 o'clock. All USO girls are urged to attend.

Frosh-Soph Classes Plan Dance

The combined efforts of the freshman and sophomore classes will be presented February 8, when both classes sponsor a dance for the lower-division students and their guests.

Dancing will be from 8 until 11 o'clock in the Women's gym. Music will be off-the-record, and the price will be 13 cents. Committee chairmen promise refreshments, entertainment, and stunts to those attending.

The classes are holding the combined affair this quarter in place of the usual quarterly class mixer. Purpose will be for the many new members of the class to get acquainted with one another and the old class members.

Sophomore committee members for the dance are: Jim Bartolomeoni, Patsy Young, Frances Fitzgerald, and Bev Clay.

Art Department Program Successful; 100 Attend Sunday's Presentation

Sunday afternoon's Art program was tremendously successful, according to Art department instructors and from comments of the visitors.

With nearly 100 townspeople in attendance, the program was smoothly conducted. Dr. Stephen Kayser spoke on water color paintings. He gave the historical background of water colors and showed prints and slides comparing different types of water color paintings.

DISPLAY ARTISTS

Painters whose works were on exhibit attended the gathering and several took part in the round-table discussion. Alexander Nepote, assistant professor of Arts and Crafts in Oakland; Leon Amyx, Art department head at Salinas JC; Halley Cox, Art department head of Santa Clara High school; and J. Theodore Johnson of the San Jose State staff carried on the vital and interesting discussion.

COMMITTEES

The group then surveyed the pictures and visited with the artists. Hosts for the affair were Mrs. Nadine Hammond, Miss Oma Strain, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert A. Franklin, Dr. and Mrs. Stephen S. Kayser, Dr. Marques Reitzel, and Mr. J. Theodore Johnson. Mrs. Gladys Vogelmann was the decorator.

The program was so successful that several of the visitors suggested that the same sort of program take place again, discussing oil paintings the next time. However, as yet no plans have been formed as to this suggestion, the Art department reports.

US vs. USSR???

Rumors are rampant in the United States today on the subject of the Soviet Union. Rumors are scintillating table-talk. We can always be assured of an audience by relating a tale of the latest Russian scheme to over-run the Americas. Also, we can be certain of being quoted if we will furnish the rabble-rousers with ammunition for their next barrage against harmonious relations between the US and the USSR.

The man who nudges your elbow at a coffee shop and eagerly insinuates that he heard from a very reliable source that the Russians have plans to blot out New York at an early date, is either an ambassador of discontent, spreading his germinous ideas with deliberation, or he is merely the witless carrier of them. One is as dangerous to our future as the other. Considering the amount of propaganda with which we came into contact during the war years, it is amazing that we can be sucked in by a bit of trite hue and cry.

True, we should not turn a deaf ear to the operations of the Communist Party in America today, nor should we disregard reports of the internal developments in Russia. But we must supply ourselves with facts in order to counter-attack the growing distrust of Russia that has been conceived and fostered by sensationalists and antagonists. We must not let ourselves be swept along with the uninformed, basing our beliefs on the lurid propaganda that is so much in evidence, even here on our campus. Our generation that has performed so spectacularly during the past must not be so gullible as to swallow the ravings of the Doubting Thomases without demanding facts to substantiate their assertions.

There is so much being published in our newspapers and magazines today regarding our economic and diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union, that it is difficult for one person to acquaint himself with all the pertinent facts, and become truly well-informed. We need, then, forums, speakers who are up-to-date, and informal get-togethers to air our views, so that we may promote among ourselves a thorough understanding of our mighty world neighbor who carries such a big stick.

Shall we allow thoughts to be put into our heads, and words to be put into our mouths by men whose aim is not our welfare, but our destruction? We fought hard for a tentative peace, a young, wobbly peace, for which we must provide a firm foundation. We must see that it does not follow its predecessor of 1918 into the wastebasket of eternity.

—Berna Deane Durgy

THE WEAVER

By DAVE WEBSTER

Cartoonist Sansone's "Wolf" has nothing on Al Johnson, director of this year's Revelries. Al was the only man privileged to stay in the Morris Dailey auditorium last Tuesday afternoon to watch the girls tryout for the chorus. "All work and no play makes Jack (or Al) a dull boy," you know.

And speaking of Al, the chorus girls are working on an angle in the matter of getting him to help dedicate that growth of mistletoe out by the corner of the Art wing. When they catch him, there shouldn't be any lack of male talent standing by to give assistance if Al gets tired. In fact, it sounds almost like those reception lines at weddings, only the parts are reversed.

Hansen's creamery, out in Willow Glen, is two-timing us now. Seems that Mary Jeanne Anzalone is helping out her brother, who just bought the place. It's no use, fellows; she works every night.

Up in Moscow, Idaho, Columnist Jack Shurman claims there's "more ice on the sidewalk than on a (Idaho version) Gamma Phi's left hand, and, just yesterday, the city's fire department put 30 cocker spaniels on the payroll to help locate fire hydrants."

Saw another show last Saturday evening up at UC. That was the Glee Club and Treble Clef show, "Pollen-Aise," or "The Plight of the Humble Bee." As a musical variety show, it was very fine, but was hampered by poor direction which simply didn't stack up alongside the baton-ology practiced at San Jose State. The program was directed by Mr. Ralston, possessor of the longest baton we've ever seen—almost three feet—but came the finale and a special director, Iva de Hiat. She transformed the group with her dynamism, and managed the long and difficult modern number, "New York," with complete finesse.

Despite that one criticism, the show was first rate entertainment, the sort of thing that we at San Jose see too little of. Going over the program, we would pick out these numbers as outstanding: "Casey played with the strawberry blonde, and the band walked off"; "Jewel Song, a gem by Arabelle Hong"; "Jane Boswell gives a new slant on pin-ups with 'The Picture That's Turned to the Wall'"; "June Is Busting Out All Over"—Guess Who June Is!;

ORCHIDS TO TWO

Thrust and Parry:

Orchids to Dean Pitman and Mr. Adams for the job they did on the recent "Public Law 16" issue. The men (you know who you are) that were worried about last quarter's eligibility under "P.L. 16" can now rest at ease. We know the Dean is very busy and we appreciate his unceasing efforts on our part. The matter has been cleared up completely, thanks to those two gentlemen. We are behind you 100 per cent, gentlemen, and thanks again.

LET US MEDITATE

Thrust and Parry:

In reference to Miss Anzalone's article addressed to my roomie, Mr. Caldwell, by way of this column—your torrent of verbosity was obviously the result of an emotional jag as evidenced by your immature usage of terminology and the unethical corruption of Mr. Caldwell's suggestions.

To be sure, no institution is above censure and criticism, and who is better able to improve our own brain factory than a student who has its best interests and general welfare at heart? I am certain that the administration would be the first to agree that the registration mill is in need of vast change and improvement. One need only to observe the much over-worked Doctor Elder patiently slaving away over the programs of confused freshmen, green from the provinces, while an infinite number of new problems stand stretched out clear to Alviso. Witness the be-sweated brows of our professors; what could better call for a change? It is indeed cause for chagrin upon the part of a serious student to see a top-notch PhD. acting as a general office boy filling out forms.

True, we must be patient and await a Fabian change, for the entire school is in the throes of reconversion and each problem must await its turn. Let me urge patience and, to you, Miss Anzalone, your literary faux pas was not worthy of you. This time we will forgive you, but don't let it happen again. And, Miss Anzalone, I would be the last to say "grow up or shut up"; rather I would even commend this medium of expression of your suppressed emotions for after all we do learn by making mistakes. Away from this worldly strife, let us meditate.

—Voltaire, ASB 1209.

HERE'S A VOLUNTEER

Thrust and Parry:

Flash!!!! Johnson complains yet. The chance of a lifetime and he balks. Bah! he has shattered the great conception of Johnson (the Hamster). Behold, fellow students, the idol of the stage, the poor man's Orson Welles refuses to inaugurate the kissing spot by entering a lip wrestle with our own glamorous chorus. Is he mad? (Maybe he's going stir at the prospect of

"Dick DeForest, singing 'Personality'; and 'Somebody Loves Me, —I wonder why!'

It was a good show, but with complete loyalty to all things San Josean, we still think State can do better.

To return to the favorite topic of women—MEN, that is—we heard the filosifer comment recently that "a man can find a pearl in an oyster, but it takes a woman to get a diamond from an old crab."

mid-terms.)

To Johnson—you can't do this, old man. It is not your choice, but the decision of fate and history. You belong to the times to come. What will our grandchildren do when they come to State? There will be no kissing spot; so they will live four years without a satisfactory chance of expressing their libido. Reflect, oh tall one, what bearing will this have in view of the new ratio? WOMEN ARE GETTING D— FEW AND FAR BETWEEN. A kissing spot would solve many problems. It's really getting to such a pass that you have to have an excuse to smooch your gal. Pause and think, blonde one, and then be the salvation of the undergraduate Id.

P. S. If you won't kiss the chorus, I will—one at a time, girls.

STRANGE NEW DISEASES?

Thrust and Parry:

A recent article appeared in the Daily last week concerning the Health Office. I agree on the idea that this department needs some further investigation. The treatment of colds and flu is its strongest stand. But there are numerous other types of illnesses besides these that seem to completely befuddle the Health Office.

Most of us know the correct treatment of the common ailments mentioned, but if ever we have any illness new to us, we might as well go to a doctor up town. We'll be recommended to one, anyway, and if it requires an X-ray we'll have to go up town and pay, regardless. We appreciate the generous offer to come to the Health Cottage for curing flu, but if it's something else, we'd better figure out our own remedy.

Dear Thrust and Parry:

For many years the Spartan Daily has followed me to many remote parts of the Pacific and I want to thank all those who made it possible for me to receive them. The Dailies have kept me informed on all the activities of San Jose as well as the college; especially the changes that have taken place since I left. There is so much I could say at this moment, but I am afraid that other Spartans have written so much about war and strange lands that you would only be bored with repetition. I'm just tired of this life and all I can think of now is the day when I get home.

TEACHER FLIES

Mrs. Lillian Gray, associate professor of education at San Jose State college, will speak at a reading workshop meeting at Sacramento Saturday.

Instead of a long trip by car or train which would ordinarily take three hours, Mrs. Gray is flying to the capital city, which will bring her there in less than one hour's time, in 42 minutes to be exact.

The trip by air will be an innovation as compared to the many times Mrs. Gray has driven to Sacramento on school business; although she is very much interested in aviation, and flies frequently.

the Dailies as I'll be on my way home shortly and they would never reach me in time. I have missed State very much; much more than I could tell at this time. Thank all of you and also the editor who first started to send me the Dailies in 1943 when I left for the army.

Sincerely,

S/Sgt. Richard E. Calvello.

IT'S ONLY PUBLICITY

Dear Thrust and Parry:

My, my, how conceit does appear in print! The owner of the same is Mr. Al Johnson, the man who thought he did the cast of Outward Bound a great favor by appearing with them.

What do we read when we go to check on the progress of the Revelries in the Spartan Daily? Al Johnson looks over chorus girls with roving eye! Al Johnson is in danger of being trapped under mistletoe by girls of the Revelries cast! Al Johnson is playing "hard-to-get"!

I hope Miss Margaret Moore and the girls of the chorus will not throw themselves from the Golden Gate Bridge if this campus IDOL fails to do them the honor!

RECITAL SCHEDULED

Advanced students of the Vocal department will give their annual recital Tuesday evening, February 19, at 8 p. m. in the college Little Theater.

Solos, duets, and large ensembles with string obbligato will be featured on the program.

Miss Maurine Thompson of the Music department faculty will direct the presentation. Dottie Fliflet, and Janet Meyer will accompany.

This recital is open to the public free of charge.

NOTICE

Christian Science organization meeting today at noon in room 155. Students and faculty members are invited.

Spartan Daily Sports

The possibilities of a game with the University of Santa Clara have been exhausted, reports basketball Mentor Walt McPherson. The Spartan cage schedule has been completed and the Broncos are not on it.

Perhaps, for the Broncos' sake, it was just as well, for the high riding Spartans are believed to have a little more talent than the young Barsi-men at the Mission school.

The Santa Clarans got dumped badly by the University of California Saturday night in Berkeley, 56-42. Big Ed Wolfe, one of the nation's leading scorers, took high point honors with 17 tallies to his credit. The younger, inexperienced Broncos were led by Holm and Nicholas, who gathered in 10 points apiece.

NEW BEAR COACH

Speaking of the Bears of California, I see where they have signed a new grid mentor, namely Frank Wickhorst, former assistant to "Stub" Allison.

Wickhorst played his collegiate football at Annapolis, where he was named all-American tackle. He was recently discharged from the Navy where he held a commission as a full commander.

He has named his assistants as Vic Bottari, former star halfback on the '37 Bear club, and Irv Uteritz, backfield coach.

SPRING SOFTBALL

You fraternal organizations and independent outfits better get your players signed up for the rapidly approaching softball league, to start early in the Spring quarter.

Rules and a league manager have as yet not been designated, but it is believed that the same rule in regard to the number of varsity baseball men eligible to play on a single team will stand (three).

The defending champions are (plug) the Spartan Daily, which yours truly was fortunate enough to manage. I played a little, too, believe-it-or-not. I wasn't always as shot as I am now.

Other members of that winning club, that had a record of nine wins against one loss, included: Jack Marcipan, Bill McFarland, Herman Wreade, Ed Loudon, Milo Badger, Charlie Christensen, Andy Stevenson, Art Jacobsen, and Ken McGill (he played a mean right field).

CAGE GAME CALLED OFF

Next Tuesday night's home game with El Centro Marines has been called off. That was the next scheduled home appearance of the high Flying Spartans, and Coach Walt McPherson is attempting to arrange a contest with a bay area club to fill the vacancy.

If it is impossible to arrange, the next home contest will be played on February 9 against the College of Pacific.

Portal Appointed To Boxing Committee

At the recent meeting of the NCAA, Spartan Boxing Coach DeWitt Portal, better known as "Dee," was appointed to the Boxing Rules committee of the association. This places "Dee" among the few nationally recognized boxing coaches, and confers the first honor of its kind on a Spartan mentor.

Coach Portal joined the SJSC athletic staff in 1934, when he graduated with a special secondary credential in Physical Education. He will shortly be discharged from the Navy.

JOHNSON NAMED BASEBALL COACH

Spartan senior Ralph Johnson was named student coach of baseball yesterday by the Physical Education department administration.

Johnson, who was assistant coach of baseball at Modesto last year, has returned to San Jose to obtain his special secondary credential in physical education. He left college several years ago to seek employment in a different line elsewhere.

He was teaching on a temporary certificate at the Modesto Junior college last year, when he made the decision to enter the physical education field permanently and so returned to Sparta.

TRACK SEASON WILL OPEN EARLY IN MARCH, ANNOUNCES COACH "BUD" WINTER

This year's track season will start around the second week in March, when a huge sign-up rally will be held, announces Coach "Bud" Winter. At least 100 men are expected to turn out and the coach plans to carry a proportionately high number of these candidates. "The majority of the track and field men who were on 1942's championship squad have signified their intention to return to this

Spartan Tankmen vs. Cal Swimmers Here Friday, Feb. 1

Spartan tankmen will meet the University of California swimming team here Friday. The Spartan student coach, Don Thomsen, has hopes for "a fairly easy victory" over the Berkeley squad and feels confident that his swimmers will be more than equal to any competition the University can furnish.

Led by a diving trio of champions, Bob Whitehead, Frank Petty, and "Boogey" O'Brien, the swimming squad is ably manned by a succession of real swimmers who have shown considerable form and speed in their practices.

After the records set in the last four years in which SJSC participated in CCAA sports and captured all but one first place, the Mermen are hoping that they can add to the renown of the swimming teams from this college.

college in the spring quarter, when they will also return to the track squad," the coach declared.

To date the only man enrolled here from that record-breaking squad of the '42 season is Billy Rhyne, who was known as "The one-man track team" when he ran for the U. S. Maritime service last year.

ON SCHEDULE

San Jose State has many meets on the tentative side of the picture, but other than the AAU indoor meet to be held in Oakland March 16, the definite dates have not been set. Meets are scheduled with the University of California, Stanford university, Fresno, Santa Barbara, and San Diego State college, as well as the Fresno invitational, Compton invitational, and Los Angeles Coliseum invitational relay meets. Invitations have been received to the Texas invitational at Texas university and the Drake tourneys, but limited available funds on the track budget will keep the Gold and White of San Jose State from appearing in any of the more distant meets.

Called "The fastest clay track in the country" by Coach Winter, the Spartan track has been undergoing minor repairs which will put it in top shape for the forthcoming spring track season.

INTERCLASS MEETS

Inter-class meets will be the main events in the preparatory schedule for the regular season, and a great deal of interest in the sport is expected to develop from them. The coach urges all men who can run to turn out for track, and they will "at least get valuable training, if they are not good enough to be included in the final roster of the cindermen."

A highly successful season is anticipated by Winter, who has been track coach here since the 1942 season.

NOTICE

Results for the Inter-Society Red Cross competition of last quarter will be in the sorority boxes by 2 o'clock tomorrow. After these results have been verified by the sororities, they will be published in the paper.

Gamma Phi's, Beta Chi's Featured In Tomorrow's Inter-Frat Cage Tilts

Gamma Phi Sigma and Beta Chi Sigma, currently leading the fraternity basketball league, will meet tomorrow night in the feature game of a scheduled double-header.

DTG will engage DSG in the other half of the twin bill to be played in the Spartan gymnasium, starting at 6:30.

Last Thursday night Beta Chi was knocked over by DSG in somewhat of a surprise upset. The big cog in the upset win was the sharp shooting of DSG's Doug Bacon. Doug racked up a total of 22 points, as he hit them from all angles.

FORMER PREXY

Bacon was recently discharged from the armed service. He will be remembered as a former DSG fraternity president, and star basketball player of his organization back in '42.

In the other half of the double-header played last week, Gamma Phi Sigma defeated Alpha Pi Omega to take over undisputed possession of first place in this year's league race.

MORE GAMES

Other games scheduled for the month of February include: February 7, Beta Chi Sigma in a return game with Gamma Phi Sigma, and APO versus DTG.

February 14: Gamma Phi versus DTG and DSG vs. APO.

NOTICE

Rally committees: We will have our pictures taken Wednesday at 12:30. Please be prompt. All members are expected to show up! We will meet out behind the "Pub" office.

By virtue of his 17 point spree against the Pacific Tigers Saturday night, Ed Maggetti continued his pace-setting tactics in the individual scoring race to bring his total to 181 markers. He has dumped in 76 field goals and 29 free throws to amass this total.

The remaining order of the scorers was the same, as Center Wes Stevenson rested in second place with 139 markers and Bert Robinson held on to third place with 117 counters.

KEENE HOLDS ON

Even though he played in only 14 games and is now in the army, George Keene, former Modesto JC star, held on to fourth place with 102 digits. The fifth regular, Ted Holmes, has sent in 29 field goals and 23 charity tosses from his guard position to score 81 points.

Maggetti boasts an average of nearly 11 points per game, but is being pushed more than a little by the new found scoring threat, Fred Lindsey. Lindsey has played in only five encounters, but has 52 points to his credit for a slightly better than 10 point average.

NEW OFFENSE

Coach Walt McPherson has been toying with the double post style of offense this week with the possibility of having a bit more of his scoring power in the game at the same time. He will use it a bit in the Fresno series if the boys adapt themselves to the change appreciably.

Forthcoming Comedy, 'Brief Music,' Promises To Be Outstanding, Unique

By BARBARA CAMPBELL

If a second-week rehearsal is any indication of what "Brief Music," coming comedy on college life, is going to be like, everyone had better do a bit of marking in his date book for one of the nights of February 5 through 9. Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock the cast was busy rehearsing the second act of the play for all they were worth, and it was something to see even in its unpolished condition, with improvised props and no costumes.

COED TYPES

The play is an especially appropriate one for production on a college campus. All of the action takes place in a study in a girls' dormitory. Main parts in the comedy are those of six co-eds who are typical of the different types found in a group of college girls.

There's the dominating personality, the "frail flower," the grown-up, poised girl, the calculating type, and others. Two old-timers, Jo Hildebrand and Elda Beth Payne, are in the cast. Jo, as Rosey, the intellectual in the group, promises to be at her riotous best, and Elda Beth in her role as Jinx, or Jennie James, the "nuisance," has an opportunity to give her all.

UNUSUAL STAGING

"Brief Music" is being presented "penthouse style" with the audience sitting in a circle around the acting area. The lounge of the Student Union will be the scene of the presentation.

Production of a play in "penthouse style" involves a certain skill and practice in order to get sound, lights and action coordinated. The use of a curtain is impossible, so blackening out the lights must substitute. While the lights are out, the scene must be arranged and props carried on and off the stage area by the actors themselves. The lights will be suspended from the ceiling and operated by a person sitting behind the audience.

You Can Be An AIRLINE STEWARDESS

Today United Air Lines is seeking young women to begin the interesting career of flying the nation's airways as stewardesses on its Mainliners.

The requirements are:

- Age — 21 to 26 years
- Height — 5' 2" to 5' 6"
- Weight — 125 lbs. or less
- Unmarried
- Good Health and Vision
- United States Citizen
- 2 Years College, or Registered Nurse

Successful applicants will be furnished transportation to Chicago where they will receive four weeks training at full pay.

Young women who can meet the above qualifications but who are not available for employment at the present time should apply now for future Stewardess classes.

A new booklet "How to Become a Mainliner Stewardess" is now available.

To obtain one, write or apply in person at 421 Powell street San Francisco.

UNITED AIR LINES

ORIGINAL THEME

(Continued from page 1) the 10 lovely chorines who will gambol across the stage of Revelries when the curtain rises on the night of February 21.

Besides the chorus, there will be original specialty acts; and the whole is built around an original theme, a riot of laughs and dramatic pranks that will tickle the armor of any Spartan.

Revelries, with original music, an all-student cast, student direction and management, shows promise of being the biggest and most thrilling thing to hit the campus since the veterans came back. The show will run for three nights—February 21, 22 and 23.

NATIONAL PRES. HONORED AT K-P TEA

Ruth Newby, national president of Delta Phi Upsilon, honorary kindergarten-primary society, was guest of honor at a tea given Sunday by the San Jose State college chapter.

The tea was given at the home of Miss Mabel Crumby, Education professor who is the society's adviser, with alumnae and active members of Delta Phi Upsilon serving as hostesses. Miss Newby is a teacher in the Pasadena schools.

Snap-Shots Of Junior Spartans In Album

Snap-shots of 18 little Spartans, the offspring of former and present Spartans, are represented in a large leather-bound photograph album compiled by Dean of Women Helen Dimmick.

The album is called "Junior Spartans at Various Ages." It is not necessary that both parents have attended San Jose State college to make Spartan babies eligible for the scrapbook.

WSSF AIDS TB VICTIMS LOCALLY

World Student Service Fund is working locally to help students in distress. It was revealed with the release of the story of Wei Ta Huang, 26-year-old Chinese, a victim of tuberculosis.

Under a program similar to the GI Bill, Chinese students are subsidized while in schools in this country with reparations money paid to the United States by China after the Boxer rebellion.

LEFT PENNILESS

Huang, however, who has studied at the National Sun Yat Sen university in Canton and at Peking university, was left without any means of support when he had to drop out of UC at Berkeley.

A patient at Alum Rock Sanatorium, Huang's expenses ran about $125 a month and he was soon out of funds. In desperation, he wrote a letter which brought his plight to the attention of students on San Jose State campus.

SOLVENT AGAIN

Forwarded to the Chinese Student Christian Association, an affiliate of the WSSF, Huang's plea brought immediate results. By return mail there came a check for $75, and a promise of further assistance. Thanks to the money given by fellow students through the WSSF, Wei Ta Huang will be able to pay his bills and return to school.
